

WSLCA 2006 Winter Conference Activities

(Included in Registration Fee)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 8TH: WELCOME RECEPTION AT SAZERAC

Downtown Seattle, the perfect backdrop for a uniquely seductive food concept: SAZERAC, where the motto is "serious fun and damn good food."

Renowned Chef Jan Birnbaum succeeded in creating high-energy atmospherics at the Sazerac - named for a potent New Orleans cocktail. A hit with Seattle's dining public since opening in 1997, Sazerac's open, high-ceilinged room, elevated exhibition kitchen and vibrantly designed interior - featuring handcrafted steel-frame chandeliers and distressed copper structures - make for a stylish destination.

Photo & Info. credit: www.sazeracrestaurant.com/

MONDAY, JANUARY 9TH: WELCOME DINNER AT THE CRAB POT

Located on Seattle's Historic Waterfront, the Crab Pot Restaurant & Bar features fresh local seafood. Your feast will include a variety of crab, clams, mussels, shrimp in the shell, potatoes, corn on the cob and andouille sausage steamed with mouth watering spices and poured right on your table! No need for silverware, we give you a bib and a mallet and let you go at it!

Photo & Info. credit: www.pier57seattle.com/restaurants.html

TUESDAY, JANUARY 10TH: CUSTOM TOUR OF SEATTLE BY SCENIC SEATTLE TOURS

This action-packed tour moves from sight to sight covering a vast array of Seattle history, botany and culture. We stop and get out four times to experience the city and take some great photos. You are guaranteed to have a wonderful time free of boredom. You will experience the famous Pike Place Market, Pioneer Square, International District and much more.

Photo & info. credit: www.customizedtours.net/

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 11TH: FAREWELL DINNER AT THE SPACE NEEDLE

The Seattle Space Needle is probably the most recognizable icon of the Pacific Northwest. It was built in 1962 to be the focus of the city's futuristic World's Fair. At that time, it was the tallest building west of the Mississippi River. Today, more than one million people visit the Needle each year.

Photo credit: www.spaceneedle.com

